

 Harvest Windows	June	July	August	September	October	November
Beans—green, purple, yellow
Beets
Broccoli
Brussels Sprouts
Cabbage—green, red, Savoy
Cantaloupe
Carrots
Cauliflower
Celeriac
Celery
Chard—rainbow, red
Chinese Cabbage
Sweet Corn
Cucumber
dried Beans
Eggplant
Strawberries
Garlic
Greens—Mizuna, Tat Soi...
Greens—collards, turnips...
Green Onions
Ground Cherries
Herbs—Arugula, Basil, Cilantro, Mints, Parsley, Sage...
Kale—green, red, Russian
Leeks
Lettuces
Onions—red, yellow
Peas—snap, snow
Peppers—sweet, hot
Potatoes—red, blue, yukon gold
Radishes
Spinich
Squash—summer, zucchini
Squash—winter
Sweet Potatoes
Tomatoes—cherry, Roma, slicing
Turnip
Watermelon—red, yellow

These harvest windows will give you an idea of the crops we grow and the times of the year in which they are harvested. They represent our goals, which are always weather dependent. You can expect your share to contain fruits, herbs, and veggies chosen from the harvest projection.